FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASESouthside Johnny & the Asbury Jukes, Earl David Reed Announced at Whitaker Center this Winter
*Blues Rockers and Comedian Light up the Sunoco Stage

On the heels of their latest album release “Soulttime!” Southside Johnny and Asbury Jukes will be coming to Whitaker Center on Friday, January 22, 2016 at 8:00 pm to shake things up. After spending over four decades performing, the Jukes have a sound that has evolved with each new addition to the band. Over 100 musicians have claimed to be band members responsible for molding their iconic sound. Fellow New Jersey native Bruce Springsteen has been tied closely to the band, having performed with them on numerous occasions. This is a show that will be sure to have the audience on their feet.

Whitaker Center for Science and the Arts in association with BRE presents Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes. Tickets are $35.00, $45.00 & $55.00

One part comedian, one part radio host, one part...body builder? Earl David Reed may be many things but “dynamic performer” is at the top of the list. With a strong background in comedy, Reed has been able to parlay his quick wit into several successful hosting stints. Alongside Nipsy and Jen Shade, Reed currently serves as a member of the People’s Morning Show on 105.7 The X. While he spends his mornings on the airwaves, his evenings take him from Las Vegas to Atlantic City and everywhere in-between as part of his stand-up career. Reed’s comedic stylings have been featured in two DVDs, “Laughs from the Hood” and “Straight Trippin’ 2.” See this multifaceted performer for yourself on February 20, 2016.

Whitaker Center for Science and the Arts presents Earl David Reed The Secret of My Unsuccess. Tickets are $18, $19, & $20.
