Expedition Chesapeake: A Journey of Discovery Documentary Film Debuts at Whitaker Center

First Whitaker Center Productions film begins screening in Select Medical Digital Cinema

Harrisburg, PA (March 21, 2019) – The long-awaited documentary film Expedition Chesapeake: A Journey of Discovery will debut to the public at Whitaker Center's Select Medical Digital Cinema today. Hosted by world-renowned biologist Jeff Corwin, the film is the first produced by Whitaker Center Productions. Expedition Chesapeake will be shown regularly as part of the cinema schedule at Whitaker Center.

Developed in partnership with a world-class team of scientists, educators, and conservationists, Expedition Chesapeake encourages audiences to appreciate the value of the Bay and take steps to support long-term conservation efforts in their communities.

Immerse yourself into the waters of the bay as Emmy award-winning naturalist, Jeff Corwin, leads you through the expedition from New York to Virginia, and meet the families and teams who are working together to understand and address the issues facing the country's largest estuary.

This unique, immersive film is a powerful educational tool for the next generation of environmental stewards, to learn about the connections between the millions of people, plants and animals that call the watershed home and inspire them restore the health of the Chesapeake Bay or the estuary that relies on the watershed where they live.

As always, a ticket purchased to a film shown at Whitaker Center's Select Medical Digital Cinema helps to support nonprofit arts programming in Central PA.

Tickets are on sale now at whitakercenter.org. Ticket prices are $8.00 for Juniors (age 3 – 17) and $9.50 for Adults (age 18+). Whitaker Center members, military personnel and groups of 10 or more are eligible for discounted tickets by calling 214-ARTS or purchasing at the Whitaker Center Box Office.
